

Aztec Group's Daryl Pilcher Finalist for IoD Jersey 'Young Director of the Year'

Associate Director, Daryl Pilcher, has been named as a finalist for 'Young Director of the Year' at the 2021 Institute of Directors (IoD) Jersey Awards.

The Jersey branch of the IoD has announced the shortlist of individuals for its annual search to find the top leaders across Jersey's private, public and voluntary sectors. The Awards celebrate strong leadership and recognise excellence across the business community and public sector.

Daryl joined the Aztec Group in 2016 and was appointed to the role of Associate Director in 2020. He leads several client relationship teams, focused on the provision of corporate services to both unlisted and listed structures across all asset classes.

During his time with the Group he has led a number of Group-wide client development initiatives, and is a recognised expert in high value M&A transactions. Daryl also supports clients by providing Directorships to Jersey resident structures.

Head of Corporate Services – Jersey, Grant Collins, said: "Daryl has made a significant impact during his time with Aztec, demonstrating both his excellent technical ability as well as a proactive, client-focused approach. He led his team with great skill and empathy throughout the challenges caused by Covid-19, ensuring they were well equipped to continue to deliver a seamless service for our clients as we transitioned to working remotely."

"Building trusted relationships is key in our industry, and this shortlisting reflects the high regard in which Daryl is held by both our clients and his colleagues. It's great to see his hard work and dedication recognised in this way."

The winners of the 2021 Jersey IoD Awards will be announced at a black-tie awards ceremony at the Royal Yacht on Friday 17 September.

Chair of the IoD Awards judging panel, Kevin Keen, said: “The judging panel had a very difficult job this year. We had over 60 entrants completing comprehensive online entries. After a lot of work and debate, we were unanimous in this list of really inspiring finalists. Jersey leadership at its very best.”
