Job Description

Finance Director

Reporting to CFO

With a track record of 18 years of continued organic growth, we are now preparing the business for the next stage of evolution. In an increasingly globalising market, the opportunities for the business continue to grow rapidly.

This role involves supporting our four operating divisions, managing all aspects of finance for our operating subsidiaries.

Longer-term we expect this role to focus on Europe with the finance team expanding into other regions as the business grows into those geographies.

Key responsibilities:

- + Ensure management reporting is delivered in line with Group deadlines providing analysis and commentary on month product result
- + Complete regulatory financial reporting and measurement of regulatory capital as required
- + Support the leadership team in reviewing the performance of their business and identify opportunities or threats
- + Ensure all financial reporting, e.g. management, statutory and tax are completed in line with Group and regulatory deadlines, policies with the appropriate controls in place
- + Partner with the Group Heads of Product to ensure budgets and forecasts are set with appropriate targets, challenge and to Group deadlines
- + Manage billing and work with the client leads to ensure cash is collected on a timely basis
- + Manage accounts payable and expenses, ensuring authorisations are in line with the group delegated authority
- + Ownership and development of the finance system as required
- + Work with the CFO on projects as required
- + Manage tax compliance

Skills, knowledge, expertise:

- + Extensive post qualification (ACCA, ACA, CIMA) experience, with experience of working in a role managing both company statutory and business partnering finance experience
- + Experience of developing and managing a high-performance finance team in a comparable role
- + Excellent interpersonal skills are required to develop close working relationships with stakeholders
- + Must have experience of people management and development
